

Site information

Location

- Hogsmill STW Nature Reserve is located in London within the Royal Borough of Kingston upon Thames. The reserve is located off Lower Marsh Lane just past the Thames Water Hogsmill Sewage Treatment Works

Access

- Via public transport the reserve is accessible from Berrylands Station or by K1/K4 bus off Villiers Road.
- The reserve car park is located on Lower Marsh Lane (free of charge) for the Friends of Hogsmill STW Nature Reserve.
- Thames Water is committed to improving access for all users of our recreational areas; thus Hogsmill STW Nature Reserve is wheelchair accessible.
- Please do not allow non-members of the scheme access into the reserve or car park for any reason.
- If you wish to bring personal friends into the reserve for a visit please contact Kristine Boudreau, Hogsmill STW Nature Reserve Manager (details below) prior to visiting the reserve.

General

- There is a bird hide on the reserve, but currently there are no visitor facilities at this reserve (toilets etc.) Please sign the visitor's log and share your bird records in the hide log book, and let us know of any interesting sightings via phone or email (details below)
- Please wear suitable clothing and footwear when visiting the reserve.
- If you have access to a mobile phone you should carry this during your visit.
- Be aware of certain hazards, which occur throughout the Nature Reserve, which can be avoided by obeying signs and staying on designated pathways. Please take particular care with respect to the following:
  - Open water (which may be deep)
  - Mud banks
  - Steep Slopes
- Please report any sightings of undesirable behaviour or activities conducted by other members/non-members of the scheme to Kristine Boudreau, Hogsmill STW Nature Reserve Manager.

Emergency

- In case of an accident the nearest Accident & Emergency unit is Kingston Hospital, Galsworthy Road, Kingston upon Thames (10 minute drive from reserve). Telephone, 0208 546 7711.
- In case of emergency dial 999 or contact the Thames Water Customer Centre on 0845 9200 800.
- If you experience any problems whilst visiting the Nature Reserve please contact Kristine Boudreau, Hogsmill STW Nature Reserve Manager.
